JURY PONDER VERDICT IN 5 AUTO DEATHS

An Adams County jury this afternoon is considering its verdict in the five charges of involuntary manslaughter brought against Lewis D. Sheehey, Fairfield R. 2, as a result of an auto accident March 4 seven miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd.

The charge to the jury was given by Judge W. C. Sheehey starting at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. This morning testimony in the case was completed and the attorneys presented their arguments to the jury.

The Sheehey jury was interrupted twice. Tuesday afternoon the jurors hearing the charge of pointing a pistol against Mrs. Mary Goulden, Gettysburg R. 2, returned from their 30 minutes' deliberation of that case. Foreman John C. Stahl Jr. handed up the jury's verdict finding Mrs. Goulden "guilty."

This morning the Sheehey trial was interrupted again to permit drawing of a civil case jury and the hearing of medical testimony in that case. The civil suit is an action in trespass brought by Donald A. Emenheiser; his wife, Catherine L. Emenheiser, and seven-year-old son, Michael A. Emenheiser, all of Abbottstown R. 1, against Robert L. Starnier is unrepresented in the case but a jury must determine the amount of damages for injured suffered in the crash. The witness heard this morning was Dr. George E. Thomassy, Hanover.

Bender, Gettysburg R. 2; Guy Bream, Gardeners R. 1; Charles Cashman, Biglerville R. 2; Miss Marie E. Kuhn, Gettysburg R. 5; Charles L. Lott, Gettysburg R. 2; Luther D. Aging Churchill Calls On 2 Stricken Friends

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was a visit that tugged at the heart-strings — timeworn Sir Winston Churchill paying a call on two gravely ill old friends.

Accompanied by President Eisenhower, his host, Britain's former prime minister went to Walter Reed Army Hospital Tuesday afternoon to see cancer-stricken John Foster Dulles and Gen. George C. Marshall, who has suffered two strokes.

Marshall, now retired, was U.S. Army chief of staff in World War II and worked closely with Churchill. Dulles, whose illness forced his resignation as secretary of state last month, also had participated in many a conference with the grand old man from England.

Age Is Wearing

Churchill now is 84 and — as Eisenhower put it at his news conference Tuesday — is showing the wear and tear of advancing age.

So it was something of a physical effort for him to go to the hospital from the White House.

He and the President first spent about two minutes with Marshall, assured him.

DR. CRAPSTER TELLS OF LIFE IN ENGLAND

Dr. Basil Crapster, of the Gettysburg College faculty, gave members of the Gettysburg chapter of the Woman's League of Gettysburg College an insight into modern Britain in an address at their meeting Tuesday afternoon at Christ Lutheran church.

"For an American a trip to Britain is always a trip home, perhaps only a spiritual home, for we are not all British stock; perhaps a home inhabited only by distant relatives, for our culture is not British; perhaps a home from which we ran away after a quarrel, in 1776, and perhaps a home containing many rooms we have never visited for we know little of much of British life.

"Yet it is home. For better or for worse, Britain is under our skins for culture and especially education which has made much of it familiar. One has the feeling 'I've been here before.'"

"Contemporary Britain reflects the influence of Americanization which might be better described as a parallel development common to western civilization. Radio has replaced wireless. Advertising is still a little self-conscious. TV is spotty. Radio seems more distinctly British although being a government monopoly it is conservative. Quiz shows offer smaller prizes but the same scandals. There is less program selection but the serious shows offered are better than ours.

"The educational trend is the reverse of that in America. Courses are tending more to science although grammar school (Continued On Page 4)

District Governor Charles Mowery, York, presented the cup which was received on behalf of the Fairfield club by William Shultz, president.

There were 35 Lions present at the meeting in the Lutheran parish house. They included visitors from the Gettysburg, New Oxford and Upper Adams clubs. Women of Zion Church served the fried chicken dinner.

The Fairfield club achieved its performance win by its rating in 18 categories, including new members — it added 15 to bring its roster of 42 — visitations, projects completed and newspaper articles. MRS. NAUGLE TO BE VISITOR FOR WELFARE

Mrs. John D. Naugle, Gettysburg R. 2, wife of the assistant county farm agent, was appointed today by the Adams County Commissioners at their meeting in the court house as caseworker for the Adams County Child Welfare Services. She fills a vacancy that has existed for more than six months.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska and a former International farm youth exchange student, Mrs. Naugle will begin her new duties in the Child Welfare office June 1. She left today for a visit with her parents in Nebraska.

Three tax collectors met with the commissioners this morning to go over the exoneration list for 1958 taxes. They were Mrs. William F. Mahone of Oxford Twp.; Joseph Gochenour of Menallen Twp. and LeRoy Bish, Littlestown.

Order New Booths

The commissioners ordered new voting booths for New Oxford and McSherrystown and directed Charles Albright, East Berlin R. D., to make repairs as needed to the other booths in the various election places prior to May 19.

A new roof and new smoke stack were authorized for the Menallen Twp. election house, one of the few owned by the county.

Albright was authorized also to make repairs to the Zeigler bridge, near Zeigler's mill, and put a new railing on the bridge at Stone Jug.

May Change Voting Place

The commissioners said they will ask the Child Welfare officials whether it may be possible to permit Third Ward voting in the Child Welfare rooms in the court house instead of the historical society rooms. The commissioners said the stairway to the basement rooms are difficult for some older voters and it is believed they will find it easier in the first floor room of the Child Welfare Services, just inside the door at the court house.

This afternoon the commissioners visited Liberty Twp. to check on election facilities there. They also visited the county home property along the Harrisburg Rd. across the road from the Eisenhower School to determine whether an embankment there may constitute a hazard for traffic because of the expected increased use of the Broadway intersection and the use of school buses there.

Thursday the commissioners will hold their monthly meeting at the Adams County Institution District at the county home.

OLD DORM AT SEMINARY TO BE PRESERVED

The board of directors of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary Tuesday voted to accept a proposal by local civic and historic groups that they be permitted to raise funds to restore and preserve the old dormitory at the seminary which was used by both Union and Confederate troops during the Battle of Gettysburg.

Under the program approved by the board, the building will be leased to the Adams County Historical Society. As soon as the lease is arranged the historical society will ask state approval to conduct a drive for funds for the restoration.

Dr. Frederick E. Tilberg, Dr. W. E. Tilberg and D. Walker Woods representing the historical society and Gettysburg Civil War Round Table outlined plans for renovation.

Offers Total $7,500

They said offers of about $7,500 have been received so far from interested persons, but no money has been accepted pending the action by the board and the clearance of the permit by the state.

Dr. Frederick Tilberg said plans call for almost immediate work on the outside brick wall on the northwest corner of the building, which has begun to deteriorate. Other patching will be done on the outside and roof. The front "rear" portico, which is called the front and which was built in 1914, will be removed to restore the appearance as it was in 1863. New wiring and fixtures will be placed, plumbing and heating will be renovated, plaster will be repaired where needed, a coat of paint will be applied, oak flooring will be placed and repairs generally will be made.

To Study Merge

Eventually several rooms will be restored. The board also voted to accept the invitation of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, to appoint a committee to study the desirability of combining Mt. Airy and Gettysburg into a single seminary. The committee was authorized to study and report the developing pattern of its study to each meeting of the board.

HISTORIANS ON 1ST TOUR FOR SEASON

Twenty-five members of the Adams County Historical Society, conducting the first of their annual summer tours Tuesday evening, traveled to York Sulphur Springs, Huntingdon Meeting House and Trostle's quarry near York Springs.

At York Sulphur Springs, Dr. Frederick Tilberg, Gettysburg National Park historian, told of the summer resort which was popular there in the early 1800s. Numerous people from Europe came to the springs to "restore their health," but most patrons of the hotel and spring were Baltimore residents, he said. The site of the old spring was pointed out. A large stone covers it about a one half mile east of York Springs, off the York Springs-Hanover Rd., along Bermudian Creek.

At the Huntingdon Meeting House, Miss Anna Black, Flora Dale, told of the history of that religious center. Her sister, Miss Alice Black, read a paper on the life of General William Wierman Wright, of the York Springs area, famed Civil War period engineer, who was one of the engineers on the Panama Canal in later years. He is buried in the church cemetery.

Where Dinosaurs Roamed
At the Trostle quarry Dr. Tilberg told of the finding of an unusual stone when workmen were constructing the bridge over Plum Run, near Big Round Top on the battlefield. The foreman men were curious about footprints that appeared in the stone. They contacted Dr. Tilberg, who called in state geologists who confirmed that the footprints were those of dinosaurs. Other geologists were called in and a trip made to the Trostle quarry two miles from the Huntingdon Meeting (See Photo On Page 4)

FIRE CHIEFS TO MEET

The Adams County Fire Chiefs Association will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the New Oxford Fire Hall, President Glenn Ohler has announced.

SAYS LATIN AMERICANS ARE DIVERSE

There is diversity rather than the homogeneity that many Americans believe exists in Latin American countries, Guillermo Barriga, of the Gettysburg College faculty, told the international study group of the American Association of University Women meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ralph Tyson, Idaville.

Although, except for Brazil, Spain has been Latin American countries their language and religion, extensive inter-marriage of early Spanish conquistadores and settlers with natives has brought about new cultures through the blending of the several ethnic groups, he said.

"Consequently," he added, "each Latin American has a deep feeling of pride in his country which causes him to recoil from the idea of combining his country with another, as has been suggested in the case of some of the smaller republics."

Describing an imaginary air trip into his native Colombia, Barriga surprised his audience by noting the extensive textile industry, processing U.S. cotton and sending army drill cloth to the U.S. for uniforms. He also pointed out the large leather industry.

"In the mountains," he continued, "corn and rice are grown the year around in the 70-degree climate. The prime export is coffee — the country's finances are closely bound to the coffee market."

Barriga displayed textiles, silver and other samples of Colombia art and industry's production.

The group's next meeting has been set for next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Harold A. Dunkelberger, W. Lincoln Ave., when the topic will be Brazil. Mrs. S. S. Rosenberger will be in charge.

FOUND DEAD IN TRAILER HOME

C. Lester Goodermuth, 56, an employee at the Gettysburg Drain Tile works for the last 11 years, was found dead Tuesday evening about 7:30 o'clock in his trailer to the rear of the tile works along the Lincoln Highway at the eastern edge of town.

Goodermuth's body was found by a brother and Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, estimated that death had occurred about 5 p.m. He said death was due to a coronary occlusion.

Mr. Goodermuth had lived in the trailer for about a year. Before that he had resided with his mother, Mrs. Mary Jeffcoat Goodermuth, 640 York St. The deceased was a native of Gettysburg. His father, Daniel, died a number of years ago.

Aged Man Is Killed In Truck Collision

FANNETTSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Two trucks collided on Route 75 near this Franklin County community Tuesday, fatally injuring an elderly man and hospitalizing another.

Harvey Ramsey, 80, of Broad Top, Huntingdon County, died three hours after he was taken to Chambersburg hospital of chest and internal injuries.

State trooper Gus Alexiou of the Chambersburg station said Ramsey was riding in a truck driven by Carl Grissinger, 76, of Saxton, who was reported in fair condition at the hospital from a possible skull fracture and chest injuries.

The other driver was identified as Orrie A. Folk, 41, of Middleburg R. 1. He was unhurt.

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Hazza Majali, a staunch friend of the West, expected to form a new Jordanian government quickly today.

King Hussein named Majali to succeed Premier Samir Rifai, the last pro-Western strong man in the Arab world who resigned Tuesday pleading ill health.

The change aroused some speculation that Hussein might be getting ready to patch up differences with President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic. But Cairo's government-controlled newspapers attacked the appointment, with Al Gumhuriya saying it only meant substitution of an "agent of British policy" for an agent of American policy.

SCHONGAU, Germany (AP) — Ranger troops of West Germany's new army are eating crow — as a matter of diet.

It's part of a toughening process in training for survival, given in "courses for airborne individual fighters" in this Bavarian alpine region.

A reporter for a Munich newspaper, Ernst Baumeier, visited the training camp in a forest near the Lech River. He reported the rangers live in tents made from parachutes. They are rigidly trained in noiseless commando techniques.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Hospital care for the indigent and more discussion of illegitimacy were on the agenda today as a five-member Senate committee resumed hearings in a probe of the Public Welfare Department.

Chairman Albert R. Pechan (R-Armstrong) called several departmental aides to amplify testimony on the subjects given at previous hearings.

Apple Blossoms Will Be Full
Bloom May 9 Local Growers State:
Adams County's apple trees will be in full bloom, and at their best between Wednesday, May 9, and Wednesday, May 16, it was announced by the fruitgrowers association of Adams County, which extends an invitation to the public to view the blossoms."In extending this invitation we want to avoid any commercial tinge to this beautiful and gorgeous display of nature's handiwork," Robert M. Eldon, secretary of the fruitgrowers' association stated. "We are proud of our fine orchards and we are anxious to have the public view the blossoms and enjoy them with us."Goldfish On Battlefield Attract Many: A new beauty spot has been attracting many motorists to the battlefield during recent weeks. It is the large goldfish pond, on Stone Avenue, a short distance from the John Burns statue on the battlefield.Four or five years ago, Mose Bair, battlefield guide, deposited two gold fish in the pond that borders on Stone Avenue, about two hundred feet south of Lincoln Highway west.Today there are believed to be more than a thousand goldfish, ranging in size from two inches to eight or nine inches.Lockup Houses First Prisoners:

pleted this week, had its first customer Thursday, when an Ardenville area man was arrested for of liquor.Originator Of Mother's Day To Come Here: Mother's Day will have a special significance for Gettysburg and Gettysburg College this year when the originator of Mother's Day, Miss Ann Jarvis, will be a guest at the celebration

the college will observe here May 12 and 13.Although days honoring mothers and motherhood were observed before the Christian era by pagans, and the fourth Sunday in Lent had been set aside for the observance of this festival since the advent of Christianity, the day was not observed in America until 1908. It was begun in Philadelphia the second Sunday in May when Miss Jarvis honored her own mother.The thought of observing Mother's Day in churches and Sunday schools originated with Miss Jarvis, of Philadelphia, when she was asked by the superintendent of the Sunday School in a town in Virginia, in which her mother had been active, to arrange a memorial service.After its observance in Philadelphia, the idea of setting aside the second Sunday in May for the particular purpose of conducting services in memory of mothers was lost in many cities and communities. Oklahoma observed its first Mother's Day May 12, 1912, when the governor of that state issued a proclamation setting aside this day for the remembrance of mothers.The custom became so popular that a resolution was passed by congress at the instigation of President Woodrow Wilson, May 10, 1913, designating the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day and a national holiday. The display of the United States flag on all government buildings was authorized by the national legislative body.Gettysburg To Issue Special

Today's Talk

PLANTED SEEDS

Every day of our lives we plant seeds — just as a gardener does, and with each planting we dream of the time when those seeds will spring forth into flowers, into stars that shine during the daytime in the heart, and into new courage exempling the eternity of nature.Planted seeds in the mind are what give to us alertness and sympathy as well as understanding the human heart. Nature is always productive. She blows her messages to the four winds of the compass. Seeds are little things, but mighty in the end.
Antoine De Saint-Exupery, in one of his poetic statements, wrote of "the concert of little things that sustain us and constitute our compensation."Words are seeds we self-plant in our own minds and then inspire the act in the minds of endless others. A single kind word has often become worldwide in its influence. Nature takes and plants it, and then we are invited into its secret chamber where it was born.I look out from my library window and watch eagerly for the first movements that announce the parade of springtime. Little breaks in the soil, and then — behold a miracle! Seeds, planted in fertile soil, created the wonderful trees of cherry blossoms recently in bloom in many parts of the country. I viewed one that was so beautiful it seemed to me to be unearthly.Beauty ties itself to life wherever it nests upon the earth, and when we look upon each specimen we are inspired with new courage and new useful resolves.
Beauty is forever spreading itself.Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Right Thing"

Just Folks

THE CAUSE OF THE STRUGGLE
When I've enough to eat and wearWhy should I strive for more?
I bid you note my neighbor there
Just passing by my door.
He laughed at me as he flew by
And I'll not rest until I own a car as fast as his,
And some day soon, I will.My car is now as fast as his,
But I'm not satisfied.
His fortune's tripled, so they say,
While mine's not multiplied.
I'll tremble mine before I quit,
Although the pace may kill;
I want as much or more than he,
And get it soon, I will.And thus the source of discontent,
The thought that makes us sore;We can't enjoy the things we have
If neighbors but have more.
Though health may fade and strength departAnd we grow short of breath,
To be as rich as some else
We struggle on till death.Protected, 1959, by The George

Liable For DamageHARRISBURG (AP)—Parents would be liable for injury or damage caused by their children under a bill approved by the House
Tuesday and sent to the Senate.
The vote on the much-amended proposal was 135-53.It would make the parents of any child 8 to 16 years of age liable for injury to any persons or loss or damage to property caused by the child's willful and malicious conduct. Such liability would range from $300 for a single act to $1,000 for a series of acts.The bill was changed five times before it finally won enough support to pass. On March 17, a final vote was postponed when opposition to the bill mushroomed in the floor debate and its defeat appeared certain.Opponents and sponsors of the measure got together then to iron out their differences.

Stop Barking Dogs
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A judge ruled here that dog owners cannot be required by law to keep their dogs from barking.
"As a matter of fact, you can't keep a dog from barking unless you kill it," he added.
County Judge William A. Miller
tossed out a $50 fine against L.F.
Schelever Jr., owner of the Idle-wood Kennels.
The judge, without calling witnesses, ruled also that Schelever did not force the dogs to bark.
The kennel owner was fined March 17 in Corporation Court for keeping barking dogs that made unnecessary noises. He appealed to County Court. The complaint was filed by neighbors.Rules Owners Can't

Lehigh Crushes Bullets
13-6 In Loose Contest;
Scranton Here Saturday

Lehigh pounded out 16 hits to rout the Gettysburg College baseball team here Tuesday 13-6 as the Bullets gave a loose lack-luster performance.

The Engineers shelled Mel Jacobs, Bullet starter, for five runs in the second, four unearned, on four hits, a walk, two errors and several lapses of field.

After Jacobs allowed the first three batters to reach base in the third inning on a single, walk and hit batsman, Gordon Kissner took over the mound duties. A sacrifice fly, fielder's choice, two stolen bases and Fred Bischoff's two-run single put Lehigh out in front 9-0.

Gettysburg tabbed a run in the last of the inning when Jerry Long was safe on an overthrow at first base and Fred Mueller singled him home.

Three hits gave Lehigh two more tallies in the fourth and another trio of hits added a run in the seventh.

Strong Finish

A walk, Ken Frutcher's double and a sacrifice fly by Larry Liedel gave the Bullets a run in the seventh. After Lehigh picked up its final run in the eighth Gettysburg scored twice in its half on a bases loaded single by Ron Fredericks. A walk, Liedel's triple and Jeff Kailer's sacrifice fly added two runs in the ninth.

Bob Hulton's team is now 7-4. They meet Scranton here Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

Lehigh is 5-7 for the campaign and all five victories were hung up by Craig Anderson who pitched the first six frames against the Bullets.

EFFEL TOWER WAS OPENED 70 YEARS AGO

PARIS (AP)—Seventy years ago today a Spanish nobleman rode a rickety elevator to the top of the Eiffel Tower to become its first public visitor.

Since then almost 35 million persons have visited the 984-foot steel skeleton, France's most popular tourist attraction.

The name of the Spanish pioneer is lost to history, but more distinguished guests include Queen Victoria, Presidents Wilson and Eisenhower and Sir Winston Churchill.

To handle the huge flow of tourists—as many as 17,000 a summer Sunday—the original elevator was replaced in 1900 by a series of lifts, with two double-deckers serving the lower two of the tower's three observation decks.

A few hardy persons still climb the 1,900 steps to the top. Amateur mountaineers from time to time have tried to make it up the outside, girder by girder. The government banned such stunts after an Austrian tourist who couldn't pay the admission price climbed 700 feet.

The 984-foot tower was built to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the French Revolution of 1789. Its designer was bridge builder Gustave Eiffel.

Construction started in 1887. It took 300 workmen two years and 2½ million rivets to put together the 18,036 iron girders. The tower weighs 7,000 tons and cost 1½ million dollars.

Stengel Refuses To Appear On TV

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Casey Stengel isn't worried by his New York Yankees' slump but he seemed irritated Tuesday night before the game with the Kansas City Athletics.

A television camera crew approached the Yankee bench with microphone and camera.

"Get away from here," Stengel said. "You want me to come out and talk about this ball club and I ain't going to do it. This is a good ball club. I make my living here on this bench not in the movies."

When the camera crew tried to put in a dissent, Stengel jumped up and headed for the clubhouse, calling over his shoulder: "I'll see you in Europe."

J.M. CABOT MAY GO TO BRAZIL

WASHINGTON (AP)—John M. Cabot, a career foreign service officer, reportedly is in line to be ambassador to Brazil, the job Clare Boothe Luce quit three days after the Senate confirmed her.

Mrs. Luce won Senate confirmation last week in spite of a bitter fight against her nomination by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore). But she could not resist a parting shot that her troubles began when Morse was kicked in the head by a horse.

Wants Career Man

That brought a new uproar in the Senate and on Friday she resigned, saying Morse would continue to harass her in the ambassadorship.

There has been considerable feeling in the Senate that the job should go to a career State Department officer. Tuesday night an authoritative source reported that President Eisenhower will submit Cabot's name in the next few days.

Cabot, 57, now is ambassador to Colombia, and has had long Latin American experience as well as high posts in other parts of the world. His foreign service career began in 1926.

EMMY NIGHT STARTS AT 10 THIS EVENING

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—This is Emmy night, when a lot of TV stars will appear briefly before the cameras to present or receive the golden statues which indicate that he or she or this show was the best of its kind during the year.

For 90 minutes — 10-11:30 p.m. EST—millions of people will be mildly or violently interested in who gets what, how Bob Hope looks, what Dinah Shore and the other women are wearing. The professional critics will review the proceedings as earnestly as if it were a Playhouse 90, and there will undoubtedly be some carping in print. Emmy has become a controversial piece of metal.

19,000 were Eligible elected as best of category by the 4,000 members of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. There are 42 categories now — none at all for daytime TV or sports—and there were some 200 nominations.

The awards are given to those that the much criticized Academy can winnow nominations down to 200 is an achievement; network television alone has an annual volume to fill 10,000 hours and more than 19,000 programs were eligible for nomination. Hollywood has an output of some 200 major films a year and 28 Oscars.

Nominations are made by producers of TV shows — including their own. "The theory is that producers are in the best position to know the best shows when they see them," said Robert Lewine, president of the Academy's New York chapter.

Inevitably there have been some goofs. For instance, no one nominated Ed Sullivan's Moiseyev dancers program, and Sullivan considers this unfortunate. Several such oversights — some of them presumably by producers who neglected to fill out the nominating cards—have led critics to say that the awards are not as meaningful as they should be.

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP)—The man who stripped down to his shorts Monday in a do-it-yourself laundry found out Tuesday why he shouldn't.

"What's the difference?" he asked. "These women come in here in shorts to do their laundry. Why can't I?"

"It's a difference of the shorts," Acting Police Court Judge Conrad G. Matz told him. Then he fined the man, James Hamley, 59, of Cincinnati, $10 and costs.

Crams 120 Kiddies Into Classroom

MILL VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—One hundred twenty children were crammed into a mockup of a classroom here Tuesday, and not as a college prank.

Principal Joseph K. Womack of the Strawberry Point Elementary School was trying to convince Mill Valley voters that more classrooms are needed. The district will vote May 19 on a $600,000 bond issue to provide 20 more rooms.

AIR POLLUTION CONTROL NEED IS EMPHASIZED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence says something must be done to control air pollution — a public nuisance he says is costing Pennsylvanians 600 million dollars a year.

The governor, at his news conference Tuesday, said the estimate was based on figures from the State Health Department studies.

"Corrosion of metals and paints, depreciation and deterioration of personal property, soiled buildings laundry and dry cleaning and agricultural damage are examples of the costly effects of air pollution," Lawrence said.

Favors Health Dept.

Lawrence said he favored proposed legislation to put controls in the hands of the State Health Department.

He complimented Pittsburgh and Philadelphia for strides taken to eliminate the problem in their areas.

"They are proof that a reasonable air pollution control program, operated by technically qualified people, can be most effective," Lawrence said.

Matter Of Authority

"It is time the we coordinate these efforts so that one community, which is working on air pollution, does not suffer because a neighboring locality has not been able to coordinate with these efforts."

Meantime, the House Game and Conservation Committee began a study of the proposed legislation in efforts to work out a compromise on where authority to enforce air pollution should be vested.

PROVIDE SAFEGUARD

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new regulation adopted by the Public Utility Commission requires truckers to get specific authority to transport radioactive material in Pennsylvania.

BEAR POLKA — Four-month-old brown bear cubs whip up a step for the onlookers in the children's section at the Whipsnade Zoo, Bedfordshire, England.

YOUNG NEGRO WAS MURDERED

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP)—A mantle of secrecy hung over the Mack Charles Parker case today as officers continued to look for clues that might lead to the lynch mob that shot the 23-year-old Negro truck driver to death.

A six-man coroner's jury ruled Tuesday that two bullet wounds killed Parker. He was awaiting trial on a charge of assaulting a pregnant white woman when a band of eight or 10 masked men kidnapped him from an unguarded jail here April 25.

No bullets were in the body when an FBI agent and a highway patrolman pulled it from the Pearl River near Bogalusa, La., Monday. But FBI Agent Joseph Myers told the jury there were two holes in the body, one in the side and the other near the breastbone.

Two hours after the inquest about 100 Negroes attended funeral services for Parker in a cemetery about one mile from his home outside Lumberton.

DETROIT (AP)—Police said Jamie Jones, 40, got so irritated when his wife nagged him as a poor fisherman that he deliberately walked off a Detroit river dock into the water. He was pulled out, treated at a hospital, and released.

Candidate Says Tires Were Deflated

WATSONVILLE, Calif. (AP)—A candidate for mayor Tuesday accused a candidate for alderman of deflating him—or rather the tires of his two campaign trucks.

Candidate William DeWorke filed the charge—unlawfully tampering with his motor vehicle without permission—against candidate Harold Perrault. He said two witnesses saw Perrault deflate the tires.

Municipal Judge Charles Francis took the case out of the campaign, scheduled a hearing May 12, the day after election.

DIES OF BURNS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Band-leader Hal McIntyre, 44, died Tuesday of burns suffered in a Hollywood apartment fire.

He was found Sunday huddled under a blanket on the kitchen floor of his vocalists' apartment. Firemen said he apparently fell asleep while smoking.

JACKSON, Wyo. (AP)—Barring an unexpected write-in campaign, Harry Clissold, 66, will be elected to his 12th or 13th term as mayor next Tuesday.

"It's been so long I can't remember," Clissold said when asked the date of his first election. It was 1935 or 1937.

"I've been trying to get someone to take the mayor's job for years, but just can't seem to get rid of it," he remarked.

Senators Hold Forth On Choices For U.S. Flower

By ED CREAUGH

WASHINGTON (AP)—A rose is a rose is a carnation is a corn tassel, or why does this grass smell so sweet, and how did those marigolds get in here?

Something like this aroma of confusion arose from the Senate Office Building today in the wake — and there were enough floral displays for a dozen wakes—of a mock hearing on a question which stirs many a gardener: What should be the U.S. national flower?

Three senators and a House member took part in the debate. You never saw such furious lobbying. Carnations were pinned on you when you entered, whether you liked it or not. Popcorn—a symbol of the corn tassel, see?—flowed like taxpayers' money.

Backs Corn Tassel

Carnations are the most practical for corsages, contended Rep. William H. Ayres (R-Ohio). Then rose Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.), a diehard supporter of the corn tassel as the American flower.

"Distinctively American in origin," said the senator, senatorially.

As for the marigold, another contender in the floral derby: "It's a good-looking bath sponge," Douglas conceded.

Scott For Roses

Sen. Thurston Morton (R-Ky.), who is committed to just plain grass, preferably Kentucky grass, ploughed under the corn tassel: "a purely male plant. What are we going to do—lose the women's vote?"

Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa.), who wouldn't hear a word against roses, stomped in turn on Morton's reveries of bluegrass.

"I don't think he should be so cud-happy," Scott complained. This all came about because a garden club in suburban Falls Church, Va., heard about the national flower debate and got into the act. It borrowed the Senate caucus room and invited the legislators to hold forth on the merits of their choices.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"Are you satisfied with this salary?" the judge asked.

"Well, I think it's pretty good," replied actress-singer Connie Stevens. "I'm only 20."

The judge then approved a seven-year Warner Bros. contract which starts the pretty blonde at $300 a week and will pay her $1,250 weekly in seven years if all options are exercised.

SAY MARRIED STUDENTS GET BEST GRADES

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Is Junior having trouble making the grade in college? Marriage might help.

That's a key conclusion drawn from a survey of 400 married, male college students at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Going home to a wife and family is a lot better for a student than pounding a pavement in search of entertainment, reports Dr. Joseph E. Lantagne, head of the school's physical education department.

Lantagne says scholarship improved in 80 per cent of those interviewed after marriage and only 8 per cent reported worse grades.

Married students do better work he adds, because "they are more secure, budget their time better and have a purpose. They want to succeed."

As normal maturing adults, Lantagne says, college students require normal sexual outlets—and these are best found in a happy marriage.

10 Pct. Are Married
"Providing the students are emotionally mature, adults should encourage earlier marriages if they expect maximum productivity while these young adults are attending college," he adds. "Marriage is probably the finest safeguard against delinquency."

About 10 per cent of all college students get married before graduation, Lantagne says.

COUPLE, FOUR KIDDIES DROWN

HEYWORTH, Ill. (AP) — An after school boat outing on a flooded gravel pit turned to tragedy Monday when the craft capsized and a Heyworth couple and four of their children drowned.

A fisherman who heard screams for help rescued a fifth child. He thought he had saved another, but she was dead when he reached shore.

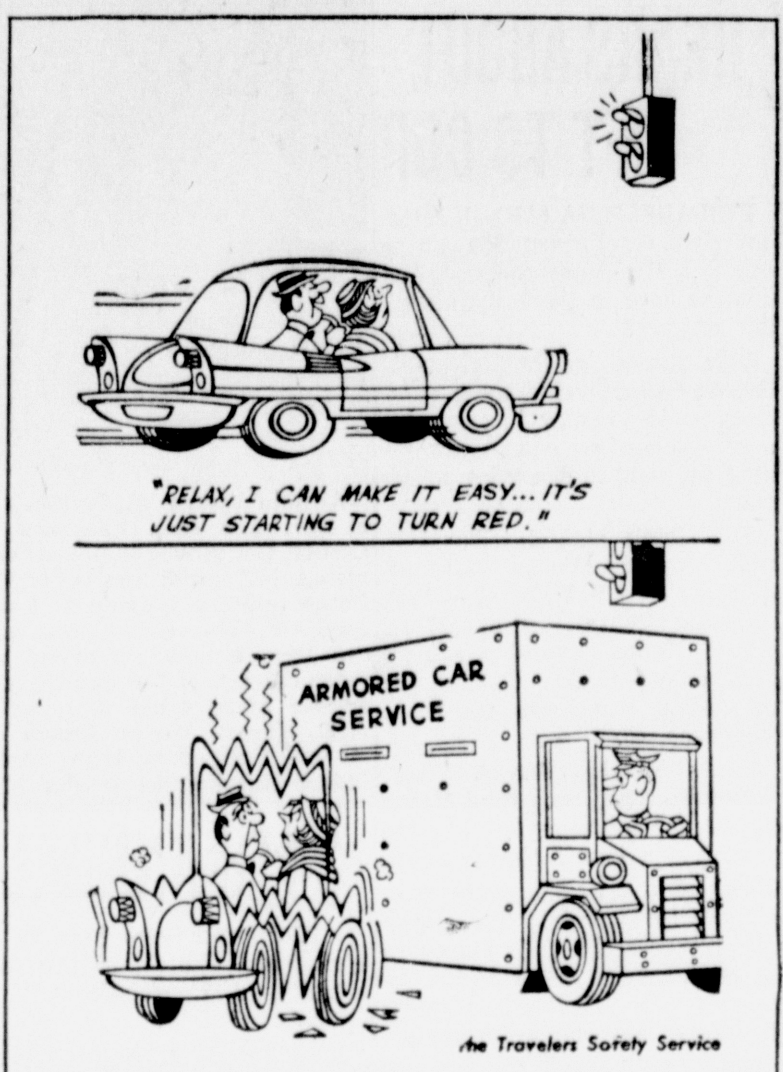

Another child, 12, watched the scene from shore.

The victims were Lawrence Bradley, 35, a factory worker; his wife, Betty, 33; and four of their children, Laura Jean, 3, Deborah, 7, Danny, 4, and Florence, 2.

Skin divers and firemen recovered all the bodies but that of Florence. Fire pump trucks from surrounding communities began draining the five-acre pit in the search for the little girl's body.

Search For Bodies Of Martin Family

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Oregon and Washington law officers were watching the Columbia River today for the bodies of the rest of the Ken Martin family of Portland.

The remains of two children, Susan, 10, and her sister, Virginia, 12, have been found in the river. Still missing are Ken Martin, 54, his wife, 48, and another daughter, Barbara, 14.

The Martins vanished Dec. 7 while on an automobile trip up the Columbia River for Christmas greens. No trace of them was found until Susan's body was picked up Sunday near Camas, Wash., a few miles upstream from here. Monday Virginia's body was found floating against the spillway gates above Bonneville Dam—40 miles upriver from Portland.

man, Carl Wunder, a machinist, was Susie, 6, Ronnie, 12, watched from shore.

McLean County authorities said they had not determined the cause of the accident, but a state trooper said the small craft was overloaded.

Two other daughters survive. They are Sharon, 14, and Rose Mondrell, 16.

TRUMAN SAYS FOREIGN FUND IS NECESSARY

By EDMOND DE BRETON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman advised Congress Tuesday not to cut the foreign aid program unless things are so bad it cuts its own salaries.

"I do not think there is any need to cut congressional salaries or to scuttle the mutual security program," he said. "We can provide adequate funds for both."

Telling the House Foreign Affairs Committee it is better posted on the details of President Eisenhower's $3,930,000,000 proposal than he is, Truman steered away from dollars and cents recommendations.

"Increase Requests"
He made one exception: "The administration has asked for 700 million dollars (for the Development Loan Fund) but their own spokesmen, before the first of the year, were saying that this fund needed from one billion to 1½ billion dollars this year. Therefore, I do not think you ought to slash the administration request; I think

SHAH OF IRAN HAS EYES ONLY FOR PRINCESS

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP) — The Shah of Iran Tuesday began an official visit to Britain reportedly with two unofficial problems on his mind—a future wife and closer ties with the West.

The moment the dark-eyed, twice-divorced potentate stepped off his train, some of the very people who could make those dreams—if they are his dreams—come true, appeared before him.

Standing in spring sunshine in the center of a quarter acre of red carpeting at flag-draped Victoria Station were:

Pretty Princess Margaret, Queen Elizabeth II, Prince Philip, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, and two of his Cabinet members.

Romance Not Suggested
Nobody in London is suggesting a romance between the 39-year-old Mohammedan Shah and the Church of England princess.

But with royalty, like thoroughbred horses, nothing is safe at 100-1.

So, when he hit the carpet at Victoria Station and found Margaret waiting there, the heads in the diplomat box began to wag.

Margaret has seldom looked lovelier.

She wore a tight fitting soft brown suit that hugged her curvy figure. The neck of the suit was well scooped.

He took her hand and looked her in the eyes—light blue eyes said to be the most beautiful in England.

Shah's Eyes Rove
Then Margaret stepped back from the formal presentation to the Shah by her sister, the Queen.

For a second the Shah's eyes roved.

No one ever has accused his highness Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi of possessing a perfectly you ought to increase it."

The Development Loan Fund helps underdeveloped nations to finance projects which regular banks normally won't handle because of the risks involved.

Truman said the authorization for the fund "ought to be a five-year program." He noted the Marshall Plan to rebuild war-devastated Europe was such a program.

It fell on pretty Princess Alexandra, cousin of Margaret and the Queen. Then it swung back to Margaret.

She stepped back and Macmillan was presented, then Home Secretary R. A. Butler and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Philip Takes Over

The Shah took a quick glance at Margaret — standing alone in the center of the carpet. It looked as if he might move toward her. But if he had such plans he was too late.

At his elbow, the Queen produced a general for the Shah to meet.

At this juncture, Prince Philip edged up to Margaret, whispered something in her ear and smilingly escorted her—behind the Shah and the Queen—to their royal carriages.

The President also told a news conference once again that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is the only man who can deal authoritatively for Russia.

MINISTER ASKS LENIENCY FOR HIS ASSAILANT

BATH, N.Y. (AP)—A minister asked leniency Monday for a 19-year-old hitchhiker sailor who admitted striking him and stealing his automobile.

The sailor, William E. Osborne, of Buffalo, was given a one-year suspended sentence and put on indefinite probation.

The Rev. A. John Amundsen, pastor of the Nelson (Pa.) Methodist Church, said in Steuben County Court, "As a clergyman, I have helped many men along the path of life and I now truly forgive this boy, despite the abuse I have suffered."

Osborne told police he struck the minister, left him by a road near Corning and drove away in his car last Jan. 11. He was arrested at Milton, Pa.

Osborne had been indicted on a charge of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, a felony.

The Rev. Mr. Amundsen did not file a complaint in the alleged personal attack. He was hospitalized for about a week.

House Amends Bill On Audits Of Funds

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House approved, 117-58, Monday night an amendment to the fiscal code exempting insurance premiums collected for volunteer firemen's relief (pension) associations from state auditing.

The change was made in a Senate-approved bill spelling out the auditor general's duties to audit general and special funds under the fiscal code.

The bill was moved into position for a final vote today or next week. It would have to go back to the Senate for approval of the House amendment, however.

WAUKESHA, Wis. (AP) — At the height of a snowstorm that snarled traffic for miles around, a woman telephoned the sheriff's office and asked about the condition of the roads.

She got the stock reply: "mis-er-able."

"Oh, maybe the road is bad," she told the deputy. "I thought my husband was out drinking again."

PSU DIVIDES TRACK TEAM

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pitt and Penn State were in dispute today over a conflict in track meet dates.

The Panthers and the Lions have scheduled their annual dual meet in Pitt Stadium a week from Saturday. But Penn State Coach Chick Werner says he and five of his stars, including mile ace Ed Moran, will be in far away Los Angeles for the Coliseum Relays.

Werner said that after getting the Los Angeles bid he asked Pitt athletic director Tom Hamilton to change the dual meet to the following Monday. "He said he couldn't because of the bicentennial. We'll just have to meet Pitt with what's left," Chick reported.

Hamilton, looking ahead to the first telecast ever planned for a Pitt track meet, expressed disappointment. "We figured we'd have a good crowd out there and it would be a chance to build up track in this district," he said.

Even with Moran and his colleagues in Los Angeles, Penn State figures to have too much speed, power and skill for Pitt. The Nittany Lions are expected to win the meet easily.

WHAT IS CLOSEST TO MOTHER'S HEART?

The answer is: her family, of course! Foremost in her thinking—are the security and happiness of her loved ones.

Her smart budgeting, her thrifty buying, her talent for systematic saving... all serve to complete the picture of a family that is going places. And she has installed in her family the importance of saving and banking a little every week.

Borrows Gun To Commit Suicide

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A medical student from Sydney, Australia, walked into the sporting goods department of the Sears Roebuck Store Tuesday and used a gun on display to kill himself.

Police said Bola Sandor, 30, took a shell from a counter placed it in a 12 gauge shotgun locked in a rack, placed his head over the top of the gun and pulled the trigger.

Sandor was a medical student at Northeastern University in Boston, Mass., for the past year.

He was visiting an aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Deveso Kassay, in King of Prussia, a suburb of Philadelphia.

Police quoted Dr. Kassay as saying Sandor was depressed. Montgomery County Coroner John C. Simpson ruled the death a suicide.

Requests Additional Judge In Bucks

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. James J. A. Gallagher (D-Bucks) has asked that an additional judge be added to the Bucks County Court of Common Pleas. He introduced his proposal Tuesday.

Bucks County Republicans in the House and Senate Monday introduced legislation proposing two additional judges for the county court.

Gallagher also introduced a bill proposing that the state sell one-tenth of an acre it acquired in Lumberville from the Lumberville and Delaware Bridge Co. in 1932. The land is near the Lumberville-Raven Rock (N.J.) Pedestrian Bridge.

TOKYO (AP)—Red China served notice today she holds full sovereignty over Tibet and will tolerate no interference by "any foreign country or by the United Nations."

Peiping radio accused India of trying to prevent China from exercising full sovereignty in the revolt-torn religious state.

Although not abusive in tone, it was a firm reply to Indian Prime Minister Nehru's recent statement in Parliament that he thinks the Tibetan revolt can only be settled by giving the area autonomy.

HIGH COURT HEARS ABOUT GIFT TO COP

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—If someone gives a policeman $50 can he call it a Christmas present? And does he have to share it with fellow officers?

Five justices of Pennsylvania's Supreme Court heard those questions posed Tuesday in argument over whether first class townships have the right to discipline policemen.

The state's highest tribunal—with Justice Michael Musmano and Curtis Bok absent—took under advisement an appeal by Lower Merion Township against Montgomery County Court order reinstating patrolman Glenn A. Turkelson, 45.

Fired Last March

Turkelson had been fired March 7, 1958, for accepting $50 from the janitor of a Lower Merion Township school.

Frederick B. Smilie, Turkelson's attorney, described the money as a Christmas gift. He said the policeman was privileged to accept it under a township ordinance exempting such gratuities.

The township fired Turkelson on grounds he violated the Corrupt Practices Code by accepting the money.

The township's Civil Service Commission ruled it wasn't a Christmas gift, because the money came in an envelope addressed to Lower Merion police. The commission also said Turkelson described the money as a contribution to the "pension fund."

Code In Question

Montgomery county judge David E. Groshens set aside the dismissal. He ruled Turkelson was possibly the victim of jealousy. The $50 later was turned over to Lower Merion authorities.

Actually, the Supreme Court isn't being asked to define the status of the $50. The question is to whether the township's penalty code was, as Judge Groshens found it, "harsh and oppressive."

Edmund B. Spaeth, Jr., township attorney, said the community had a right to set rules for disciplining its policemen.

PARIS (AP)—A 24-hour strike by railway engineers today virtually shut down rail traffic between Paris and its suburbs.

Traffic jams developed along the main roads leading into the city as commuters struggled to get to work by bus, auto, motor scooter and thumb.

The Communist-led union of locomotive engineers is demanding a 40-hour week instead of the present 44, bigger bonuses and a better pension plan.

Airman Wayne W. Crouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Crouse, Gettysburg R. Bakery Union May Join Teamsters

NEW YORK (AP)—The Bakery and Confectionery Workers International Union may merge with the Teamsters Union headed by James R. Hoffa, it was reported today.

The possibility was aired in a Washington dispatch to the New York Times, which quoted Hoffa as saying merger talks were far advanced.

This union, like the Teamsters, was expelled from the AFL-CIO on charges of corruption. The AFL-CIO subsequently set up its own organization, the American Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union.

FARM REPORT ON PA. GIVEN

HARRISBURG (AP)—Wet weather temporarily held up planting activity and forced Pennsylvania farmers to take up other chores last week, the State Agriculture Department reported Tuesday.

Farmers repaired machinery, buildings and fences but returned to work in well-drained soils by week's end, the department's crop reporting service said. It added:

"Winter wheat in most areas is making good growth. Seeding of oats is on schedule with about three-fourths of the state's intended acreage planted. Many barley fields that suffered severely from the winter-kill have been plowed under and in other instances fields are very spotty."

"Hay and pasture in the south and central areas are growing well but are still behind schedule for lack of warm weather. Spraying for alfalfa weevil and spittle bug is continuing and grazing is under way in those areas."

"Planting of peas for processing is nearly completed in the south and is making good progress in the central regions. Planting of early sweet corn is under way in the south."

"Apples have been in full blossom in the Adams-Franklin and the Lehigh-Berks fruit areas. Peaches are in bloom in the northern tier counties and strawberries are in blossom in the central areas."

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. Dist. Judge George L. Hart Jr. today set aside, as excessive, a $145,000 libel judgment won by Mrs. Pearl A. Wanamaker as a result of a broadcast by Fulton Lewis Jr.

Judge Hart said that even by construing the evidence most favorably to Mrs. Wanamaker, it was his opinion that the verdict was so excessive "as to shock the conscience and lead to the conclusion that the jury was influenced by passion or prejudice."

"JB" Wins 3rd Pulitzer Prize For MacLeish; Bill Mauldin Is Honored Again

NEW YORK (AP)—"JB," a verse play which retells the book of Job in a modern setting, has brought Archibald MacLeish his third Pulitzer Prize, the 1959 award for drama.

MacLeish is the eighth American to win at least three Pulitzer prizes. His two previous awards, in 1933 and 1953, were for poetry.

The 1959 selections, announced Monday by Grayson Kirk, president of Columbia University, also put William H. (Bill) Mauldin of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in select company. His second prize for cartooning places Mauldin among 34 individuals who have won more than one Pulitzer Prize.

Paper Honored
His prize-winning cartoon was published after the Soviet Union forced Boris Pasternak to give up the Nobel Prize in literature. The cartoon's caption was: "I won the Nobel Prize for literature. What was your crime?"

A campaign against vice, gambling and corruption in Utica, N.Y., that achieved sweeping reforms won the 1959 Pulitzer Prize medal for meritorious public service for the Utica Observer-Dispatch and the Utica Daily Press, members of the Gannett group of newspapers.

"The Travels of Jaimie McPheeters," the adventures of a boy and his father during a wagon-train trek to California in the 1849 gold rush, was named the best American novel of 1958. Its author, Robert Lewis Taylor, 36, of Sharon, Conn., has written eight other books and numerous magazine pieces.

Award For Editor
In the field of newspaper editorials, the prize went to Ralph McGill, 61, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, who is celebrating his 30th year with the paper. McGill was cited for his work through the year as exemplified by an editorial calling the bombing of a synagogue in Atlanta and a high school in Clinton, Tenn., the work of "rabid, mad dog minds."

The prizes for journalism, except for the medal, carry $1,000 cash awards. Awards for literature and music are for $500 each.

The 43rd annual prizes were awarded by the Columbia University trustees on recommendations by the Advisory Board on Pulitzer Prizes. The awards have been given since 1917 through a bequest in the will of Joseph Pulitzer, newspaper publisher who died in 1911.

KHRUSHCHEV ASKED ABOUT YANK AIRMEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev himself has been asked what happened to 11 American airmen whose plane went down over Soviet Armenia last September.

U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson discussed the matter with the Soviet premier Monday on orders from President Eisenhower.

Details of their discussion were not made public. But presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said, "The ambassador's representation dealt particularly with the President's concern for the fate of the 11 members of the crew who are still missing and unaccounted for."

Was Off Course
Seventeen men were aboard the unarmed C130 transport plane when, this country alleges it was shot down Sept. 2 by Soviet fighter planes near the Turkish border, a forgery.

FIND HALO OF HYDROGEN HIGH ABOVE EARTH

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The earth is surrounded by a harmless halo of hydrogen at altitudes between 50 and 20,000 miles, a California scientist reported Tuesday.

Another researcher said a known weak spot in the earth's magnetic field may account for the gap between two dangerous doughnuts of radiation discovered in space.

These separate phenomena were described to the annual meeting of the American Geophysical Union in reports prepared by scientists of the Lockheed Missiles and Space Division, Sunnyvale, California.

A Glowing Veil
Dr. Francis A. Johnson told of the hydrogen halo, which he described as a glowing veil.

He said it is a cloud of hydrogen gas made up of electrically neutral atoms of the chemical. Its existence became known from radiation detectors aboard satellites and missiles.

Though it has a certain glow, he related, it can not be detected from the earth's surface because the radiation is absorbed in the earth's atmosphere at an altitude of about 50 miles.

Dr. Alexander J. Dessler of Lockheed offered the new theory to explain the gap between the two belts of Van Allen radiation which encircle the earth. They are considered potentially hazardous to space travel.

5,000-mile Gap
These two belts—named for Dr. James Van Allen of the State University of Iowa—hang suspended like monster doughnuts around the earth, but with openings above both the north and south polar regions.

The first belt begins at about 1,300 miles altitude and extends to about 3,000.

Then there's a 5,000-mile gap before the second belt begins at about 8,000 miles.

Dessler believes the 5,000-mile radiation-free gap between the two doughnuts is due to the Cape own anomaly. That is a weak spot, approximately 1,000 miles long and 300 miles wide, in the earth's magnetic field near the southern tip of Africa.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The two aging men out of the history books who visited Washington this week—Harry S. Truman and Sir Winston Churchill—had in good measure what any leader of history needs as a minimum: courage, vision, and determination.

Some never had much more than that. Others had something extra: flamboyance, or extravagance, or daring, or recklessness, or cruelty, or cunning, or patience, or great compassion.

Both Truman and Churchill had an extra something—call it an attitude—which set the tone of their leadership in such a way that it symbolized the spirit of their country at a time of great trouble.

Worked Under Handicap
Churchill, who worked under more terrible handicaps, will surely hold the larger place in history. But Truman, responding to the less glittering requirements of his time, shaped and changed the world, too.

Churchill, by his mastery of Britain's greatest pride, its language, articulated for the masses of his countrymen their reactions to terror and barbarism.

He did more than that. He became their rallying point.

The nobility of his phrasing—so plain and understandable that all could identify themselves with it—gave Britons a sense of historic mission.

If any man in history can be said to have carried his people to victory with him on the sheer strength of his indomitable and incorruptible spirit, it was Churchill.

Had Different Tone
Truman had tone of a different kind, but only in details. Less colorful, too. But his attitude was the same.

He was never able by the magic of his language—for he lacked the knowledge, the feeling and the mastery of Churchill in that field—to lift his people to heights that exceeded their own imagining.

But then, of course, Truman never had to. His problems were different and he did not have to arouse his country from its shattered ruins, to confront its crises.

'WATCHDOG' COMMITTEE SEEMS SURE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Creation of a legislative watchdog committee to keep an eye on state spending seems a certainty.

The Senate Republican majority predicted approval of the measure which passed the Democratic-controlled House Monday night, 187-4.

And Gov. Lawrence said he would sign it into law as soon as it reached his desk, probably next week.

"I don't think we can put too many safeguards on spending of state money," the governor said.

Would Get $250,000
The 12-member committee would receive $250,000 for its functions in watching how state agencies spend their appropriations and making recommendations for more efficient operations.

The group's membership would be divided equally between senators and assemblymen and between Democrats and Republicans.

Its passage by the House without a word of debate was hailed by Speaker H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria) as the achievement of a 20-year ambition.

"I have been on this hill many years and I have yet to see a General Assembly in a position intelligently to pass upon an administrative budget," said the 62-year-old speaker.

Work Between Sessions
The committee would be known as the Legislative Budget and Finance Committee. In contrast to standing committees, it would function even while the Legislature is in session.

After the straps were placed around his sagging body, executioner Jerome Kermer sent the 2,000-volt electrical charge through him at 10:02 p.m. Thompson was pronounced dead three minutes later by Dr. J. G. Weikel, prison physician.

Denied By Governor
Gov. Lawrence last week denied Thompson's last minute plea for executive clemency. This ended a series of court appeals and a 10 respite that delayed Thompson's execution for more than 9½ years.

The State Pardon Board last month denied a request for commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment.

In two separate trials, Thompson was convicted of slaying Pittsburgh bartender Wallace Russell Sept. 13, 1949. He was given the death sentence each time.

Convicted 9 Years Ago
The first conviction was in 1950. Attorneys appealed afterward to the State Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals which granted a new trial.

The trial led to a second conviction and sentencing in 1956 and the U. S. Supreme Court refused to review the case.

The length of time between first conviction and final sentencing represents one of the more protracted murder cases in Pennsylvania legal history.

Polly Bergen Is Operated Upon

NEW YORK (AP)—Polly Bergen, 28, was operated on for pregnancy complications Monday and is permanently out of her starring role in the musical "First Impressions."

The actress lost twins in a similar operation two years ago. She was pronounced in satisfactory condition at Mt. Sinai Hospital in which a tubal pregnancy was terminated. The condition for which she was operated on was described as a misplaced pregnancy, in its third month.

Miss Bergen's husband, Fred Fields, announced she was permanently withdrawing from "First Impressions," which opened March 19. Understudy Ellen Hanley took over the role.

MAN EXECUTED DECADE AFTER MURDER DATE

BELLEFONT, Pa. (AP)—Cleveland Thompson, limp from fear and frustration of a long unsuccessful legal battle to save his life, was executed in Pennsylvania's electric chair Monday night for a 1949 Pittsburgh slaying.

Two guards half dragged the 36-year-old convicted murderer into the death chamber. He slumped over and closed his eyes after they placed him in the chair.

After the straps were placed around his sagging body, executioner Jerome Kermer sent the 2,000-volt electrical charge through him at 10:02 p.m. Thompson was pronounced dead three minutes later by Dr. J. G. Weikel, prison physician.

Postmaster General Wants To Put "Filth Merchants" Out Of "Postal Business"

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield declared today the American public can halt the nation's half-billion-dollar a year traffic in mail order obscenity. Appealing for public support in his intensified war on "barons of obscenity who are brazenly violating our homes and soliciting our children," the postmaster general said, "The people themselves hold the final answer because they can put these filth merchants out of business."

Mr. Summerfield suggested these steps if obscene mail or advertisements soliciting its sale appear unordered in your home mail box:

Save All Materials

1. Save all materials received, including the envelopes and all enclosures.
2. Report the matter immediately to your local postmaster, and turn the materials over to him. (You may mail in your complaint and evidence if you wish.)
3. Stand ready to sign a formal complaint and testify if criminal action should be necessary.

Mr. Summerfield said public cooperation at this time is particularly important because the federal government is armed with new law which makes it possible to prosecute mail order filth dealers in local area courts.

Formerly, they could be prosecuted only at the point of origin of this material — usually a few big cities where obscene mail dealers have taken sanctuary behind legal technicalities and liberal court interpretations of what is obscene.

Can Be Prosecuted

Now, under the new law, distributors of obscenity can be prosecuted in the communities where the material is received and where the damage is done. Mr. Summerfield explained.

"The Post Office Department," Mr. Summerfield told Congress recently, "is pressing the use of this new legislation to the fullest possible extent. The first case presented following passage of the amended legislation was at Boise, Idaho, and related to mailings made in California and Oregon, addressed for delivery at Grace, Idaho. The offenders, a man and his wife, each received a ten-year prison sentence and fine. Other cases of similar nature are now pending before United States attorneys from whom positive responses have been received."

Take Other Action

In addition to criminal prosecution, the Post Office Department can take administrative action through its general counsel's office in many cases by moving to bar smutty materials from the United States mails.

Here, too, prompt public reporting by the public can speed investigation by postal inspectors and bring about faster corrective action.

In either case — criminal action or administrative procedure — the Post Office Department has a record of thorough, prompt action. Mr. Summerfield noted.

Make 4,000 Probes

"During the 12 months ending June 30, 1958," he reported, "postal inspectors conducted 4,000 separate investigations relating to the mailing of obscene and pornographic matter and caused the arrest of 293 persons. This is an increase of 45 per cent over the previous year and is the highest of record. Investigations and prosecutions during the current year to date are substantially higher than those of last year. During the same period of time, fiscal year 1958, the general counsel issued 92 Unlawful Orders barring use of the mails."

Public complaints are so vital to prosecution, Mr. Summerfield added, because the "filth factories" take advantage of "one of the nation's most cherished privileges to carry on their smutty trade — the uncensored letter — which is not subject to inspection."

Don't Be Complacent

"The American people cannot afford to be complacent about filth in the mails because dealers in smut no longer surreptitiously serve only a few adults," Mr. Summerfield noted. "They brazenly solicit teen-agers and even young children, sending their material indiscriminately and without conscience into our home mail boxes."

"For example," he continued, "the Post Office Department has cases where teen-agers wrote away for auto parts and received later 'sex instructions' advertisements; of new graduating classes whose names were taken from newspapers by filth merchants who circularized every member of the class; of youngsters who wrote in for model airplane catalogs, or a set of stamps, and later received materials on films portraying sex and perversion."

Films, Books, Pictures

Materials offered to youngsters include filthy films and books, and dirty pictures, slides and related filth, advertised in highly objectionable circulars sent indiscriminately to homes here and all over the nation.

Other alarming dimensions of the problem also have been reported to Mr. Summerfield by postal inspectors. For example, expanding investigations by the inspectors have developed positive evidence of the deliberate perversion of juveniles by promoters who induced them to pose for nude photographs.

The evidence in one case now pending before a United States attorney reveals that two 16-year-old boys who are employed to pose for the photographs and assist in the filling of orders received in response to ads were subjected to perverted sexual acts by some of the defendants in the case.

First Answered Ads

Voluminous evidence is also being assembled indicating that correspondence clubs have been formed by men and women who have at first answered ads placed in various magazines soliciting the exchange of letters between "liberal minded persons." The initial correspondence was relatively innocuous but succeeding letters became more and more obscene and ultimately, after the exchange of obscene photographs, arrangements were made for eul orgies involving as many as 10 couples, some of them husbands and wives with teen-age children at home.

Mr. Summerfield added that postal authorities all over the nation have received complaints about obscenity in the mails from leading clergymen, school groups, newspaper editors and alarmed parents.

"I am making this special appeal now," Mr. Summerfield concluded, "because I believe that increasing public awareness of the problem, as well as the new laws and growing cooperation by media in publicizing the problem, has given us an unparalleled opportunity now to eradicate this social and moral blight upon the nation."

The first National League baseball game was played April 22, 1876, in Philadelphia. Boston beat the Phils 6-5.

AWARD FIRST GRAMMIES AT HOLLYWOOD

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The newly formed Recording Academy has given its top award to an Italian, Domenico Modugno, for his "Volare."

The record was hailed the best of 1958 at the first annual Grammy awards Monday night. "Volare" was also named best song of the year.

Multiple honors went to a California boy, Ross Bagdasarian, whose raucous "Chipmunk Song" was named best comedy performance, best children's recording and best-engineered record.

Double wins were scored by Ella Fitzgerald, who was named best female vocal performer, and cited for the best jazz performance.

Two For Mancini

Count Basie won two awards for his album as best jazz group performance and dance band performance. Henry Mancini's "Peter Gunn" also got two awards, as best arrangement and album of the year.

Perry Como was handed the best male vocal performance award.

In the younger set, The Champs' "Tequila" won for rhythm and blues performance. The Kingston Trio's "Tom Dooley" scored in the country and western category.

Van Cliburn was a winner for his Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto No. 1 as best classical instrumental performance.

The top Broadway and movie albums were "The Music Man" and "Gigi."

His Dog Roamed; Man Goes To Jail

ENID, Okla. (AP)—Curtis Phillips started a 15-day jail term Monday for allowing his one-eyed hound dog Oscar to roam free.

The city dog catcher saw Oscar running loose and issued a complaint against Phillips, his neighbor.

The city court judge gave Phillips, 42 and retired, his choice: a $15 fine or 15 days in jail.

"I don't do any work so I might as well stay in jail," said Phillips.

But his defiant wife said Oscar would run free all the time, instead of taking his usual early morning sprint, as long as Phillips is in jail.

GODFREY "GOOD"

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Godfrey's condition remains good, physicians reported Tuesday as they knocked down rumors that cancer has spread throughout his body.

"Any rumor that the cancer has spread is absolutely false," said a report from the Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

"There is nothing to suggest that there has been any disease elsewhere than the tumor that was removed from his left lung."

HARRISBURG (AP)—The horse racing referendum bill was voted out of the House Law and Order Committee Tuesday for action on the floor.

Chairman Charles J. Mills (D-Westmoreland) said the controversial measure should be in position for a final vote next Monday.

TORNADOES HIT MANY SECTIONS THRU MIDWEST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More rain fell in the storm-stricken midcontinent Tuesday after a rash of tornadoes and severe thunderstorms erupted across a wide belt from South Dakota to Texas.

More than a dozen tornadoes, as well as funnel clouds, were reported in at least five states, most of them in Kansas. The twisters, which struck mostly in open country, caused damage to farm buildings and a few homes but no injuries were reported.

Violent Thunderstorms

Small tornadoes skipped across sections of Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Tornado winds, in violent thunderstorms, lashed the Midwest prairie lands into Texas. Heavy rainfall in many areas caused some flooding.

A tornado alert was in effect in Wichita, Kan., a city of 250,000 for two hours Monday night as an intense storm battered the southeast Kansas city. A half dozen funnels were reported in and near the city.

Twisters also were reported in open country near more than a half dozen other Kansas communities—Viola, Hutchinson, Chase, Osborne, Pratt and Valley Center; in Oklahoma near Lenora, Blackwell and Hennessey; in Maryville, Mo.; Black River Falls, Wis., and New Ulm and Wells, Minn.

Damage Farm Buildings

The Weather Bureau reported the tornadoes struck near Wells, about 60 miles southwest of Rochester, early this morning and dam-

Girl Plunges Ten Stories And Lives

NEW YORK (AP)—A 12-year-old girl plunged 10 stories from a Harlem apartment Monday night and suffered only face scratches.

Forina Williams told police she had been scolding her daughter Herschelle, who was in another room.

When the girl became suddenly silent, Mrs. Williams walked into the room, found an open window and looking down, saw Herschelle on the ground below.

The girl, a Negro, landed in a landscaped area. An ambulance doctor could find no injuries beyond the face scratches.

aged some farm buildings.

Drenching rains and hail were reported in many areas in Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin. Omaha was soaked by nearly three inches of rain in six hours.

In other parts of the country, thundershowers were reported in the Carolinas and Virginia and from Montana across northern Idaho into Washington and Oregon.

In 1958 France shipped to the United States 2,525,000 bottles of champagne.

SUN IS 2 PER CENT BRIGHTER

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP)—For five years the sun has been getting brighter says a team of Lowell Observatory astronomers.

They said Monday the sun is 2 per cent brighter now than when they started a study five years ago.

Harold Johnson, head of the project, said the brightness probably moves in cycles and may decrease.

"But we are not sure now," he said. "Our studies will have to continue at least six more years for a definite answer."

The astronomers agreed there is no danger of the earth or other planets being reduced to ashes.

But what if the brightness increase continues? In 50 years the sun will be twice as bright as now, one astronomer said.

What would that mean to mankind? "Don't ask me," Johnson said.

More brightness does not necessarily mean an increase in energy—or heat—produced by the sun, Johnson said. This, however, the astronomers said, needs more study.

DHERY LIKES U.S. THEATER, MANHATTAN

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—As if our world weren't already topsy-turvy enough, now along comes a Frenchman who says the English can see the point of a joke quicker than Americans.

"The English have a very good sense of humor," said Robert Dhery, star, author and director of the hit Broadway revue, "La Plume de ma Tante."

"They love gags. It's funny, because they seem so straitlaced and serious."

"They can see a gag coming. They laugh quicker, louder—and shorter—than here. They give a sharp laugh, then quit, and you have to have another gag ready."

Yanks Slower, Longer
"The Americans laugh slower and longer."

Dhery also has found a difference between French and American audiences.

"I like it here because the audience comes to the theater ready to laugh and enjoy itself," he said. "In France they go to see whether you can make them laugh. There is a difference."

Dhery, the slender mobile-faced son of a Chablis miller, has been in some 20 films. He is also one of the busiest revue directors in Paris.

Revue Short-lived
"Few revues in Paris last as long as six months," he said. "And people there book their tickets only a few days ahead at most. "Here a man and his wife may buy their tickets as much as four months ahead. Then on the night of the show their seats are empty. When I see this it makes me mad. I can only suppose they have died in the meanwhile."

One American theatrical custom which both Dhery and Collette, his blonde wife and costar, find an utter abomination is the matinee. "Collette has 17 costume changes. On matinee days she has to change her clothes 34 times. If she did nothing but this, she would be tired," he said.

Smoky Streets
Asked what impressed them most about America, Collette said, the smoky city streets; and Dhery said, Sunday newspapers. "They are so heavy. We have nothing like them in England or France," he said.

The Dherys have found Manhattan a cultural wonderland.

"I cannot understand your buffet parties," said Dhery. "They are so crowded there is no place to sit down."

"I went to one buffet party where there 200 or 300 guests. I glanced into a bathroom, and there was a young lady enjoying her meal all by herself. It was the only place she could find to sit down."

OK AFTER SURGERY
NEW YORK (AP)—Mabel Chin, the 5-year-old girl who underwent major heart surgery on television exactly a year ago, can play as much as she wants to now.

A recent physical checkup found her in perfect health.
